

FULBRIGHT FOREIGN STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Fostering mutual understanding between the people of Algeria and the United States through educational and cultural exchange.

What is a Fulbright Scholarship?

Fulbright Scholarships enable Algerians to pursue graduate-level study in the United States, build leadership skills, and exchange cultural understanding with Americans.

Who can apply?

Scholarships are open to Algerian citizens living in Algeria who:

- hold a minimum of a BA/BS degree;
- want to pursue graduate study level in any field (except medicine). Priority will be given to the following fields: English, social sciences and humanities;
- are proficient in English;
- are able to function easily in academic and social settings;
- hold a recent TOEFL score (within one year) of 550 or higher;

Individuals with U.S. citizenship or U.S. permanent residence status are NOT eligible for the Fulbright Scholarship.

What are the benefits?

The scholarship covers:

- Two year tuition at a U.S. university (either two years Master program or two years of a Ph. D. program);
- a living and book/supply stipend;
- round-trip international airfare to the U.S. ;
- insurance for the duration of the study program;

Fulbright students may also be able to attend special seminars and presentations during their time in the U.S.

N.B. Students are highly recommended to take the TOEFL IBT exam and the GRE CBT exam in October 2007. Please note registration deadline below.

The scholarship is provided for the recipient only; dependents may accompany the recipient but cannot be financially supported by the grant.
